

Meet Mrs. Vreeland!

Hi! My name is Mrs. Vreeland and I am thrilled to be your teacher this year! It's going to be a fun year filled with learning and adventure! I can't wait to get to know you and your family, but first I am going to tell you a little bit about myself.

I was born and raised in Charleston, South Carolina, along with my younger brother, Tommy. After graduating from Bishop England High School, I moved to Virginia to attend Randolph Macon College. While I was a college student, I decided that I wanted to follow in the footsteps of my mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and great-great-grandmother. That's right! I am a fifth generation teacher! Clearly teaching and the love for children is in my blood and it makes me happy every day that I get to be a part of your lives. I began my career in Virginia where I taught at the school where I completed my student teaching. After 5 years, in 2008, my husband Mike and I moved to Charlotte. We fell in love with the Dilworth neighborhood and lived a few blocks from Dilworth Elementary until this past summer.

Mike and I have been married for 11 years. We have a daughter named Cate who turns 5 in October, and our son George turned 2 in May! We also have an English Springer Spaniel named Finley who loves to greet us with kisses every day when we get home.

In my free time, I love spending time with my family! Our favorite place is the beach. Finley chases the birds, Cate plays in the tide pools, and George tries to eat sea shells! My other great love is teaching! Being a teacher is the best job in the world! This year will be #16 for me and I can't wait to get started! See you SOON!
